Kirkby Stephen Charity Auction – Tuesday 26th January 2010

On Tuesday 26th January saw the local farming community Flock to support a charity Auction held at Kirkby Stephen Mart with over 90 lots of good and Livestock on offer, a packed ringside of potential purchasers realised a stunning £4,300 for Cancer Charities Macmillan Cancer Support and Rosemere Cancer Foundation.

A huge variety of items were donated from many local business and individuals ranging from sheep feed to power tool, half a pig to afternoon tea at Sharrow Bay. Top priced item was £150 for a beautiful Walking stick.

With the auction being held prior to the prime sheep sale over 30 vendors donated livestock towards the cause. Local farmer and organiser Alan Birbeck from Nateby was delighted at the number of donations and the amount raised, exceeding the £500 he was hoping to achieve.
